

INTERNATIONAL TRADE
ADMINISTRATION

San Jose-Sunnyvale-Santa Clara, CA

- In 2007, the San Jose-Sunnyvale-Santa Clara metropolitan area was the seventh largest export market in the United States, with sales totaling $28.2 billion.
- The San Jose metropolitan area accounted for 20 percent of California's merchandise exports in 2007.
- South Korea was the leading export destination for San Jose's exports of goods in 2007. Other leading destinations were Japan and China.
- Computer and electronic products was the top San Jose export category for 2007, accounting for $19.2 billion, or 68 percent, of exported goods.
- Other top exports were machinery, except electrical ($5.9 billion, 21 percent); electrical equipment, appliances, and components ($661 million, 2 percent); and chemicals ($417 million, 1 percent).

Data year: 2007. Last updated: February 11, 2009.

Contact: Liz Clark (202-482-5732) & Michael Greene (202-482-2551), Office of Trade and Industry Information